

CEO of CIDAN Investments Limited wins African Outstanding Award

The Chief Executive Officer of CIDAN Investments Limited, a leading Financial Advisory and Investment Management Company in Ghana won big at the 2nd edition of the Africa Outstanding Professionals Awards.

Dr. Raziel Obeng-Okon was awarded the Most Outstanding Professional in Investment Management Consultancy at the just ended Africa Outstanding Professionals Awards held at the Concord Hotel in Kenya.

The African Outstanding Professionals Awards is a new pan-continental awards scheme designed to identify and publicly recognize extraordinarily capable and accomplished professionals across the various delineated fields of activity. It is open to both indigenous Africans and foreign nationals who are domiciled and professionally active in Africa.

The awards aim to encourage and promote professionalism in socio-economic activities all around the continent with a view to supporting wider efforts to make Africa most competitive within the global economy and to directly identify professionals of world class standards in their activities.

The awards scheme was organized by The Business Executive Media Group, a leading international business publishing, entrepreneurial/ corporate sector events organizing and business networking group of companies. It is headquartered in Ghana and has offices in Nigeria and The United Arab Emirates.

The award winners were selected through a comprehensive and credible process which involves nominations from the public, research driven verification of nominations and ultimately consideration by a specially appointed Awards Jury.

Speaking at the event, Honourable Anthony Samba Buluma, Executive Director of Kenya Young Parliamentarian's Association reminded the Award Recipients that the African story is beautiful and we as Africans are yet to tell it to the World.

“...the story of Africa is beautiful...we as Africans are yet to tell it to the World.”

Receiving his Award, Dr. Raziel Obeng-Okon thanked the Jury and Advisory board of the Organizers for the great honor and recognition of his hard work and dedication in his line of work. Dr. Obeng-Okon dedicated the Award to his beloved wife, Mrs. Helen Cindy Obeng-Okon, for her unflinching support and commitment to the success of CIDAN Investments Limited. He also dedicated the award to the management and staff of CIDAN Investments Limited for their hard work in helping to grow the firm over the years.
